

Special Monthly Telephone Briefing

June 26, 2020 – 12:00 – 1:30 p.m.

California Consumer Privacy Act: Final Regulations (June 2020)

The California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) became effective on January 1, 2020. On June 1, 2020 the California Attorney General issued final regulations under the CCPA. The final regulations are nearly identical to the third proposed version issued in March 2020 and reported on by the Bankers' Compliance Group at that time. However, the AG also issued a Final Statement of Reasons which clarifies some of the intent and purposes behind the regulations.

With the release of the final regulations California businesses now have a more settled set of rules to rely on (at least for the time being). The regulations provide guidance on the required timing and contents of the CCPA Notices at Collection and Privacy Policies, also on how to respond to requests to know (RTK) and requests to delete (RTD) personal information, among other things. The AG has requested expedited review of the final regulations from the state Office of Administrative Law, clearly desiring them to become effective by July 1, 2020, the date the AG's enforcement authority begins under the CCPA.

Join us on June 26, 2020 for a special Monthly Telephone Briefing to discuss the final regulations and the CCPA more broadly. Questions will be welcome.
