

Aldrich & Bonnefin, PLC*, Counsel for Bankers' Compliance Group® Presents NEW ACCOUNTS DOCUMENTATION & COMPLIANCE

April 2023

Aldrich & Bonnefin invites you and your operations and compliance staffs to attend a Seminar covering New Accounts Documentation and Compliance. Having proper new account policies and procedures can help financial institutions prevent or at least reduce the risk of fraud and other losses, as well as compliance violations.

This Seminar will discuss the documents that institutions will want to review during the account-opening process for individuals, businesses (such as corporations, partnerships and LLCs) and court-appointed fiduciaries (for example, decedent estates, conservatorships and guardianships). There will also be a detailed discussion covering the opening and maintenance of accounts for family trusts.

We will include an overview of best practices for opening accounts for non-resident alien depositors, including a review of IRS Forms W-8.

We will also address "hot topics" impacting new account operations and customer-facing disclosures.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Please invite your operations staff, compliance officers and auditors, new accounts personnel, in-house counsel and BSA department personnel.

We have scheduled only
Recording Playbacks with Live Q&A for this Seminar.
No in-person Seminar locations will be held.

Keith R. Forrester, Esq., is a principal of Aldrich & Bonnefin. Since 1993, Mr. Forrester has been extensively involved in advising financial institutions on a variety of operations matters, including new accounts, as well as the California and Federal right to financial privacy laws. Mr. Forrester manages the firm's Operations and FinTech Practice Group and in that capacity assists financial institutions in areas such as BSA, negotiable instruments, electronic banking and legal processes.
