Family trusts, once the exclusive preserve of the wealthy, have become commonplace. As a result, financial institutions face questions every day on how to deal with trusts and trustees. Trusts are remarkably flexible vehicles, with the result that very few hard-and-fast rules apply. We will address both lending and bank operations issues.

As the baby boomers enter into their twilight years, financial institutions are increasingly facing new issues as to the succession of trustees, bifurcation of trusts ("A" and "B" trusts), and dealing with holders of powers of attorney who think they can manage a trust.

You will receive a downloadable, detailed discussion outline, not just skimpy PowerPoint slides!

DISCUSSION TOPICS

- What is a trust?
- Who are the parties to a trust?
- What is the difference between a trustor, trustee and beneficiary?
- What is a revocable trust? What is the effect (risk) of revocation?
- What is a Certification of Trust? What should it say?
- Who should complete the Certification of Trust?
- On which parties to a trust should a bank or credit union perform CIP?
- What happens when a marital trust splits into two trusts?
- How does the new "beneficial ownership" rule impact trusts?
- May a trustee grant a power of attorney?

A CD also will be available for purchase!
