In this webinar, we will address the issues associated with special types of collateral from a lending, legal and perfection point of view. Good lending practices will be emphasized, with a focus on understanding the types of loan provisions that will assist the lender in managing different types of financing. Lenders will be made aware of certain pitfalls and problems which can be associated with the types of collateral to be addressed. Proper methods of perfection of the security interest for each type of collateral will be covered.
