2017 Webinar

Striving for Perfection when Perfecting Security Interests in Personal Property

Wednesday, June 21
10:00 – 11:30 a.m.

Presented by Counsel for Bankers' Compliance Group®
ALDRICH & BONNEFIN, PLC

When things go awry and defaults occur with respect to loans secured by personal property, lenders will look to their collateral to minimize losses. The attachment and perfection of a security interest in personal property collateral is essential to the enforcement of a security interest against a borrower or other pledgor (such as a guarantor), as well as third parties with competing claims to the same collateral. The requirements and procedures for attachment and perfection of a security interest in personal property are set out in Division 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted in California. This Webinar will explain the necessary steps lenders must take to ensure they have an enforceable security interest under the UCC. We will also discuss possible pitfalls to avoid when attaching and perfecting your security interest.

Presented by
Joel N. Cook
Associate of Aldrich & Bonnefin

Topics to be covered include:

- Types of personal property collateral governed by the UCC
- Requirements to attach and perfect a security interest in personal property collateral
- Priority issues among competing interests in the collateral

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Commercial loan officers, note department staff, private bankers, credit administrators and auditors
