ith all the different types of business entities, lenders have challenges in properly identifying their borrowers and understanding their legal structures. Customer Identification Program (CIP) requirements and the Beneficial Ownership Rule impose specific regulatory requirements for identifying borrowers. Failure to properly identify a borrower may not only impair the lender's security interest and put the collectability of the entire loan at risk due to UCC Article 9's requirements, but could also result in a compliance violation.

This Webinar will address these issues in a "workshop" format, providing checklists for the types of documents that can be obtained from various types of business entities.

Highlighted areas will include:

- What are the due diligence "best practices" for • each type of entity?
- How do Customer Identification Program (CIP) • rules affect lending procedures and what are the frequently asked questions?
- What are the due diligence issues that arise under UCC Article 9?
- What are the differences between sole proprietorships, corporations, LLCs, and partnerships?
- What about the impact of the Beneficial • Ownership Rule?
- Best Practices Checklists •
