Presented by Counsel for Bankers' Compliance Group®
ALDRICH & BONNEFIN, PLC

Under rules that became effective in 2014, all loan originators of dwelling-secured credit must receive training on state and federal laws applicable to their job duties. This requirement appears as part of the loan originator qualification requirements in Regulation Z. It applies to all residential mortgage loan originators, both employees and third-party mortgage brokers. The training requirements apply to a loan originator regardless of whether he or she meets the definition of a “mortgage loan originator” under the SAFE Act. Under Regulation Z, the term “loan originator” is defined broadly and includes any employee who takes an application for a residential mortgage or offers, arranges or assists a consumer in obtaining or applying for a dwelling-secured, closed-end loan. The rule is limited to closed-end mortgages; home equity lines of credit are not covered.

This two-hour Webinar will provide training that is relevant to all loan originators and will help fulfill their training requirements under Regulation Z. Under Regulation Z, training must cover both federal and state law applicable to the LO's job responsibilities. This Webinar will cover both state and federal law.

Highlighted areas will include:

Regulation B

- When has an “application” been taken?
- Is an “application” different under RESPA?
- When must I send a notice of adverse action?
- The new appraisal rules under Regulation B

Regulation Z

- When are ARM disclosures required?
- Early truth-in-lending disclosures
- Ability-to-repay rule basics
- Right of rescission
- Loan originator compensation rules
- Loan originator fitness standards

Flood Insurance Basics

- When is a flood zone determination required?
- How much flood insurance is required?
- Update on Biggert-Waters Amendments and 2014 flood “affordability” amendments

California Law

- Paying 2 percent interest on impound accounts (the highest yielding DDA in town)
